

The Museum is located in the center of St Petersburg, with convenient access from major routes north, south, east.

Your invitation to the MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS ST PETERSBURG

255 Beach Drive North

*Visit the Museum
once and you will return often*

The Museum is open daily except Mondays, the second week of November, Christmas Day, and New Year's Day.

Hours: Tuesday through Saturday, 10 am to 5 pm. Sunday, 1 to 5 pm. Third Thursday of each month, open until 9 pm.

Guided Tours daily at 12 and 2 pm Tuesday through Friday, and at 2 pm on Saturday and Sunday. Special tours are available by appointment at no charge.

Admission: For non-members, pay what you wish, but please pay something. Suggested donation, two dollars. Free to Members, students and special groups.

Membership: The Museum operates on the strength of its Members and their generosity in furthering the Museum's collection and program. Inquiries are always welcomed at the hostess desk or office, by letter or telephone (896-2667).

One of the finest museums in the southeast

It is large enough to house a wealth of treasures yet it has the intimate setting of a Mediterranean villa.

The building is an elegant showcase for presenting paintings, sculpture, the decorative and performing arts, in small charming galleries as well as in larger, more formal rooms.

And the helpful, dedicated staff creates a warm, friendly atmosphere in which you can enjoy these exhibits to the fullest.

Poppy by Georgia O'Keeffe (American, 1887—)

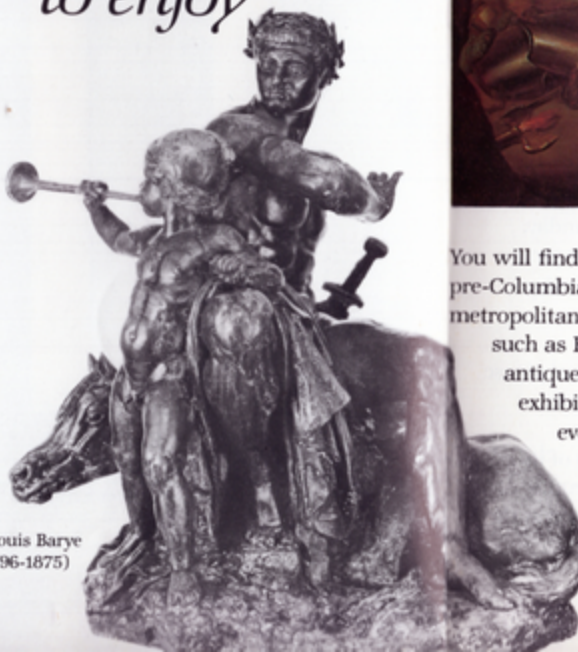

The De Kempenaer Family
by Jan Baptist Weenix, the Elder
(Dutch, 1621-1660)

Black Hawthorne Vase
China, Reign of K'ang Hsi
(1622-1722)

A world of art to enjoy

War by Antoine-Louis Barye
(French, 1796-1875)

Thetis at the Forge of Vulcan by Louis Silvestre (French, 1675-1760)

You will find collections of European, American, pre-Columbian, Far Eastern art. Loans from major metropolitan museums and collectors with masters such as Boucher, Monet, Renoir. Period rooms with antiques and historical furnishings. Special exhibitions, lectures, films, concerts, even an art reference library and an art consultation service to discuss your own treasures.